

Glossary:

Ahoy mateys: A friendly greeting to attract the attention of sailors on a ship.

Aye Aye Captain!: "Yes, captain! I understand and will do what you say!"

As the crow flies: To travel quickly from one point to another in a straight line.

A loose cannon: A person who could cause problems for other people because they do bad or silly things that no one expects.

All hands on deck: Everyone is needed to help with something.

At loggerheads: When people are at loggerheads, they're in a big argument and can't agree on something.

Batten down the hatches: Be prepared for trouble!

